PLENTY OF ENTRIES FOR CHICAGO RACE

Over Twenty Including the Dark Horses Listed.

By EDWARD M. THIERRY
N. E. A. Staff Correspondent.
CHICAGO, May 29.—Booms, near booms and boomlets center around more than a score of names in the Republican race for the presidential nomination.

Brass band blares sound the praises for less than half a dozen. Conversation—all the way from loud talk to mere whispers—runs the list up to at least 21.

Somebody not mentioned in the list of 21 possibilities and near-possibilities may win at the Chicago circus, but it's not likely.

Here's the way the list stacks up:
Active candidates: Wood, Hoover, Lowden, Johnson, Harding.
Semi-active candidates: Polindexter, Coolidge, Butler, Sproul.
Booned as candidates: Knox, Sutherland, Hays, Allen, Thompson.
Outside possibilities: Lodge, Borah, Garfield.

Former candidates, possible, but improbable: Taft, Hughes, Beveridge, Cummins.

Senators are in the majority with eight: Harding, Johnson, Polindexter, Lodge, Knox, Borah, Sutherland and Cummins. There are four governors—Lowden (Illinois), Coolidge (Massachusetts), Sproul (Pennsylvania), and Allen (Kansas). And one mayor—Thompson (Chicago).

Ex-statemen include ex-President Taft, ex-Senator Beveridge, ex-governor and ex-Supreme Court Justice Hughes, and ex-Secretary of the Interior Garfield. Wood, Hoover, Butler and Hays have never held elective office, though Hays is chairman of the Republican National committee.

Of the 21 in the list there are 13 lawyers, three editors, two real estate operators, one mining engineer, one professor and one doctor-soldier.

The youngest men mentioned are Hays, 41; Hoover, 46; and Coolidge, 48. The oldest are Lodge and Cummins, both 70. Three are in their sixties—Knox, 67; Taft, 63; and Wood, 60. Thirteen are in the fifties—Lowden, 59; Butler, Hughes and Beveridge, 58; Harding, Borah, Garfield and Sutherland, 55; Johnson, 54; Polindexter, Al-

[By Associated Press]
CLARKSBURG, May 29.—An entire business block was wiped out by fire at a loss of $60,000 this morning at West Union, county seat of Doddridge county.

The blaze started from an unknown origin in the Bailey restaurant near the Baltimore and Ohio railroad station and spread rapidly.

Mrs. Philip Pelegri Dies at Monongah

Mrs. Concetta Pelegri, of Monongah, widow of the late Philip Pelegri, died this morning at six o'clock and her death is being lamented greatly today by relatives and friends as Mrs. Pelegri was one of the best known and most highly respected Italian women in Monongah, a resident there for 22 years. Her husband died three years ago. Mrs. Pelegri has been ill for eight months of dropsy and complications. She was born in Italy. Children surviving are: Mrs. Joseph Mascio of Morgantown; Pat, Mary, Philip, Louis and Jovina, the last four at home. One brother lives at Philadelphia. Johnson's Campaign Has Cost $200,000

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Approximately $200,000 has been raised for the national campaign of Senator Johnson of California for the Republican presidential nomination, Alex McCabe treasurer of the Johnson California organization, testified today before the senate committee investigating pre convention campaign financing.

Replying to questions of Senator Spencer, Republican, Missouri, Mr. McCabe said this total did not include local sums raised over the country but he declared that all other sums would not aggregate more than a few thousand dollars.

Between $100,000 and $125,000 was spent in the California primary by the campaign organization in behalf of Senator Johnson.

Blunders of Novelists.

Baroness Orczy, in "Petticoat Government," makes the crescent moon rise over the far eastern sky at 11 o'clock on a June evening; and Miss Stevens, in "The Veil," credits her full moon with rising and setting in less than three hours! But, toughest of all bulls, is that created by Miss Marie Corelli, when, in her "Treasure of Heaven," she tells of somebody "bringing home eight Highland bull-buffers from pasture"—London Chronicle.

LET GEORGE DO IT!

NEW YORK, May 28.—Poor old lanky George Mogridge, left-wing batter for the Yankees, is having a tough go of it this spring.

So far George has started in three games and the Yanks in spite of their heavy batting ability, have been able to pound in only one run for him in all three games. All of which can't encourage a pitcher very much.

As a matter of fact, the only two shutouts the Yanks have had parceled out to them this year have been in games hurled by George.

The last contest—that with Cleveland—was almost pitiful. Six times during the contest, which the Indians took with a 5 to 0 score, did the Yankees have a chance to score, only to fall dismally. In one inning they had two men on base and no outs and the heavy hitters up, still failing to pound out a tally. Coveleskie was hurling, of course.

Waite Hoyt managed the other shut-out for the Yankees, and Allan Russell beat George out in a 2 to 1 pitchers' battle.

When Mogridge goes on the mound it appears to be a signal for the Yankee batters to go on strike.

"Let George do it," they say. But, of course, George can't do it all. He's pounded out four hits in the three games himself, although pitchers aren't supposed to hit. But even that hasn't done any good.

Music Turns Itself.

Stopping to turn a stubborn page, the musician not infrequently finds the effect of his performance spoiled by an awkward pause. From France now comes an invention which will obviate this annoyance, says Popular Mechanics Magazine. The music is printed, not on pages, but on a long strip, as is the practice with music for the player piano. Placed on motor-driven rolls, the music passes before the eyes of the player at any desired speed. The controlling lever is conveniently placed at one side.

A Concept of Duty.

There are at the present day but too many who imagine they have perfectly done their duty, because they are kind toward their friends, affectionate toward their families, inoffensive toward the rest of the world.—Maxim.

EXECUTIVES OF

ranked in the order named. While "general education of at least a high school grade" came eighth in the list.

Mr. Hodges contended that this should come closer to the head of the foremen and executives with trained minds capable of adapting themselves to varying conditions of employment, material routing, machine efficiency, welfare work and efficient placing and handling of men.

R. T. Redding of the Mining Machinery company gave a short talk upon the value of a technical training to a practical foreman. Mrs. Forrest Fankhauser's two solos were highly appreciated as was evidenced by the continued applause.
